Gwen Powell

Gwen Powell's knowledge of people skills was developed through excellent communications as the Senior Executive Sales Manager and Western Regional Director of sales development for a company that has sales of $75 million in Canada and more than a billion worldwide. She also started the firm's Australian branch from the beginning and built it into a multimillion-dollar operation. Gwen has devoted the past 16 years to helping others become the best they can be, through one-to-one coaching and group forums using recognition, education, and inspiration. Her heartfelt energy, enthusiasm, and commitment to each role inspire those who are involved with her programs.
